

importance of making sure you have the protection you need. Also we will discuss the settlement options available for your RV. Hangar C Front

Penny Dagley – Solar Pots – Come make your own solar light. Great for Rvers to put out on picnic tables as you travel. You will be provided with a clay pot, material, a solar light and glue. You will be guided through making your own solar pot. Cost $10. Limited to 10 Students. Sign up and pay at “Information”. Hangar C Rear

Marion Poole – (see Feb 7) Cessna Building

Chapter Secretaries Roundtable with the FMCA Secretary. Aerospace Pavilion Upstairs

3:00-5:00 pm Hands on CPR and AED sponsored by Polk County. Hangar A

3:00-4:00 pm FMCA University – FMCA will be introducing their newest member benefit in March. FMCA University provides members the instant access to magazine articles through the website and also a new feature for recognitions. Come see what a great resource we have for our members. Hangar C Front

Bobee Tech – My RV Story & Live Easy Way to Document Your Road Trips. Introduce a new camera for your RV and motorcycle to document your RV story and RV live; plus more Advanced Driver Assistance (ADAS) to avoid collisions and accidents by intelligent technologies that alert the driver to potential problems. Hangar C Rear

Chapter Officer Roundtable with SEA Vice-President Ken Winters. Learn about new requirements, protocols, etc in a discussion format. Aerospace Pavilion Upstairs

Friday, February 9, 2018

8:30-9:30 am Line Dancing with Gaye Young (see Feb. 8) Hangar A

America’s Mailbox (see Feb 8) Hangar C Front

Fantasy RV Rallies and Great Destinations – Fantasy RV Tours has assembled the most sought-after rally destinations including festivals and traditional favorites. Don’t miss the $250 Fuel Card drawing at the end of this seminar. Must be present to win. Hangar C Rear

8:30-12:00 noon Bettye Hatch (see Feb. 7) Aerospace Pavilion Upstairs

9:45-10:45 am RV Parts Plus – Let’s Talk RV Maintenance – From the chassis and engine to the roof, there is much to maintain, and much has changed. Keeping an RV longer means more attention to routine maintenance. Learn about some helpful products