

restaurant. Hangar C Rear

Queen of Pain Relief – Natural, Healthy Alternatives – We will discuss healthy eating alternatives and make recommendations for some healthy methods of losing weight and healing. Aerospace Pavilion Upstairs

Saturday February 10, 2018

- 9:45-10:45 am Rving to Alaska – The trip of a lifetime! Get practical information on trip planning, preparation, routes, communications, and the exciting highlights! Presented by Tom & Penny Wheeler, Tailgunners for Adventure Caravans. Enter to win a $500 trip certificate! Hangar C Front
- 9:45-12:00 noon Peggy Groves – Little Fabric Gift Bag or a Mystery Craft – Come and sign up and see what we will be making. It will be special and will knock your socks off (unless your wearing flip flops). Please bring a sewing Machine, iron and ironing pad (optional),extension cord (optional), marking chalk, quilting pins. Kits will be made up with instructions. I will have extra supplies. Limited to 10-15 students. Cost $10. Sign up and pay at "Information". Hangar C Rear
- Patricia Voyna – Fishing Line Tree – If you were at the ladies' luncheon last year, you have seen these trees in person. Everything will be provided. Come pick your color and inserts. Be creative. If you have extension cords, scissors, glue gun, please bring them along. We will have some extras. Looking forward to seeing what each one of you create. Cost $30. Limited to 15 students. Sign up and pay at "Information". Aerospace Pavilion Upstairs
- 11:00-12:00 noon RV Whisper – Efficiency and Performance of RV Refrigerators: How They Work and Why They Can Struggle On Hot Days – In this seminar you will learn the basics of how RV refrigerators typically work and how they differ from Residential Refrigerators. You will see how the efficiency improvements of residential refrigerators over the last 40 years have made them reasonable options for RV use for many people. A discussion of the pros and cons of RV Refrigerators vs Residential Refrigerators is presented with audience participation encouraged. Typical installation problems impact the efficiency and performance of RV Refrigerators are covered along with various ways to fix them. Hangar A
- RV-Parts Plus –The Alphabet for Rvers from A to Zzzzzz –If you are new to RVing or just want to ask a few questions about systems on your Rv, this is the seminar for you! Bring you questions and in this "give and take" session, Rob will do his best to answer them. Whether it is how some component operates, a maintenance question or just a curiosity, bring your question. As the co-author of "All the Stuff You ned to Know about RVing" author of thr eBook "The ABC's